

Master's Degree in Educational Management with Principal as Instructional Leader Certification

UHCL's Master's Degree in Educational Management with Principal as Instructional Leader Certification is your ticket to a meaningful professional future. If you're an educator and considering advancing your career in any administrative position, this is a great opportunity to learn more about the program and meet with the professors.

Gain the knowledge, experience and leadership skills to thrive in educational environments. Take advantage of great facilities, resources, outstanding professors and networking opportunities. The program provides face-to-face, hybrid, and online opportunities for coursework and touts a year-long practicum that is designed to allow you to stand apart from all other candidates. Key program features:

- 30-hour Master's Degree Program
- Complete, turn-key program in under two years
- Year-long Practicum
- All exams embedded within program
- Loose cohort model to support professional networking
- Principal as Instructional Leader Certification
- Advancing Educational Leadership (AEL) Certification
- Texas Teacher Evaluation and Support System (T-TESS) Certification

For more information contact: Dr. John Decman, Program Coordinator - Administration and Supervision; Professor - Educational Leadership & Policy Analysis, decman@uhcl.edu, 281-639-2792

Any person needing an accommodation for a disability in order to participate in these courses should contact UHCL's Office of Disability Services (281-283-2648) at least one week prior to arrange for the accommodation.